

Rocky Mountain roots rock and boogie blues. Reaching audiences around the world.

Ethan Askey & The Elevators

Ethan Askey & The Elevators are:

- Keith Larsen – guitars, vocals
- Ben Dunn – drums, backing vocals
- Mike Honeyman – bass
- Ethan Askey – harmonicas, horn, lead vocals

Individually, the band members are no strangers to the stage, with international experience touring original music. They've come together to form the Elevators behind bandleader Ethan Askey, a blues harpist, singer, and emerging songwriting voice in contemporary roots and blues. Ethan has long apprenticed as a studio session player and sideman, across North America & Europe, based in the Canadian Rocky Mountains.

Ethan Askey & the Elevators have lived a little, and they will draw you into tasty tales of good intentions, bad character, struggle and joy, and whistling past the graveyard. This is a roots and blues band that colours outside the lines. They create fresh and often funky music that's earned steady radio play around the world and charting success too.

"A pretty boss harmonica player"
– Erin Ross, CKUA radio host

"The songwriting is stellar...
like poetry" – Leslie Fleury,
KSER radio host Blues Odyssey

"Lowdown grooves that broaden the definition of the blues...one of those albums that, once you lend an ear, you'll never forget". ★★★★★
